

Articles and blogs

1. From Roni:

DAILY NEWS

UBER DRIVERS TO JOIN TUESDAY'S 'FIGHT FOR $15' STRIKE

November 28 2016

A nationwide "Fight for $15" day of disruption scheduled for Tuesday now includes strikes by Uber drivers in two dozen cities, as well as by baggage handlers and cabin cleaners at Chicago O'Hare International Airport, hospital workers in Pittsburgh and McDonald's and other fast-food cooks and cashiers nationwide, the Fight for $15 organization announced.

This marks the first time Uber drivers have joined this fight with fast food, airport, higher education, home care and child care workers, 24/7 Wall St. reports. At the San Francisco International Airport, Uber drivers intend to march with airport and fast-food workers, holding signs that read, "Your Uber Driver Is Arriving Striking." While in Denver, the drivers will replace their Uber placards with strike signs and join other workers on an early morning strike line outside a McDonald's restaurant. Similar demonstrations are expected in cities like Boston, Miami and Chicago.

2. Cheyenne River Sioux Response to Army

This is the response of the Cheyenne River Sioux to the Army's notice of imminent eviction. I have heard that there will be national protests next Monday. --Jack <http://nativenewsonline.net/currents/cheyenne-river-sioux-tribe-reacts-u-s-army-corps-engineers-eviction-notice-letter-makes-grave-dangerous-mistake/>

3. Chris Hedges:
http://m.truthdig.com/report/item/its_worse_than_you_think_20161111
4. Jonathan Chait, New York magazine, published more than a week before Election Day. It makes similar points to those made by Chris Hedges, but with a less hysterical tone.
<http://nymag.com/daily/intelligencer/2016/10/the-gops-age-of-authoritarianism-has-only-just-begun.html>
5. NY Times, 11/15/16, The Coal Industry Isn't Coming Back, by Michael Webber.
6. Politico.com, 11/18/16, Environmentalists get a dose of good news, by Michael Grunwald
7. Black bloc Disrupt J/20 action
<https://www.indybay.org/newsitems/2016/11/11/18793388.php>
8. Sandy: I thought this one was pretty interesting, too.
(Addresses strategic issues facing liberal and leftists—RM)
<http://www.latimes.com/books/la-ca-jc-viet-thanh-nguyen-future-20161113-story.html>
9. Jack: Here's a link to a NY Times article, "The End of Identity Liberalism", that I think is worth discussing:
http://www.nytimes.com/2016/11/20/opinion/sunday/the-end-of-identity-liberalism.html?_r=0
10. Mary: I'm sharing links to two articles from Truthdig, which I found pretty interesting:

Truthdigger of the Week: Radical Political Strategist Micah White

http://www.truthdig.com/report/item/truthdigger_of_the_week_political_strategist_micah_white_20161120

To Save the United States, Progressives Must Dispel the Economic Pain That Enabled Donald Trump

http://www.truthdig.com/eartothe-ground/item/to_save_the_unit-ed_states_progressives_must_20161119

11. 11. The Authoritarian Vision of Che Guevara

by Wayne Price

Review of Samuel Farber, *The Politics of Che Guevara (2016)

<http://www.anarkismo.net/article/29795>

The recent death of Fidel Castro makes it timely to review this account of how Che Guevara and Fidel Castro created the ideology and social structure of "Communist" Cuba. (Originally published in Anarcho-Syndicalist Review.)

12. This article has a lot of very good information and suggestions. Jack

<https://theintercept.com/2016/11/12/surveillance-self-defense-against-the-trump-administration/>